ANOTHER PRAYER AT EXAM TIME

Lord Jesus, You know that I am very anxious about the tests and exams that I have to face, and ask that You would calm my anxious, clouded thoughts. Please calm these nerves that I have and let me rest in You always. I pray that as I enter the exam, that You will fill my heart with perfect peace that only comes from You. Please also give me clarity of thought and prompt my mind to remember all the things that I have studied. Give me the wisdom and the ability to transfer my thoughts to paper. It is in Your precious name O Lord that I make this prayer. Amen.

09th June 2024 – 10th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year B

In today's Gospel (Mark 3: 20-35), a crowd so large has gathered that Jesus and his disciples are not even able to eat their bread. His family comes to take him away because they think he is beside himself. And the scribes think he is possessed by the devil. Jesus points out to them the silliness of their thinking that He uses the devil to cast out demons. In fact, it is Jesus who ties up the strong man, Beelzebub, and overcomes him.

He concludes with a brief saying about the forgiveness of sins. All sin can be forgiven except for blasphemy against the Holy Spirit. This means that the only sin that can't be forgiven is the one that cuts you off from the source of forgiveness which is the Holy Spirit.

The Gospel concludes with Jesus' family arriving and asking to see Him. This gives Jesus the opportunity to point out that family for Him is not always based on a blood relationship but can also simply be those who are gathered around in a circle listening to Him. Whoever does the will of the Father is a brother, sister and mother of Jesus.

For us today, we are called to follow the Lord, no matter what our families or other religious people think about us. We are challenged to do the works of God and to recognize that the fight between good and evil is still very much ongoing in today's World.
